

The Interplay of Psychology and Spirituality
Presented by International Association of Sufism, Sufism and Psychology Forum, and Community Healing Centers

Saturday, July 27, 2019
St. John's Presbyterian Church, 2727 College Avenue, Berkeley, California
9:30-5:00

Early registration $150 until July 20th, $165 after.
Online registration ends July 25th

In the morning presentation, Beyond Identifications, Dr. Laurence Heller, internationally published author, will present the NeuroAffective Relational Model (NARM) as a spiritually and somatically based psychotherapy. He suggests that, "Psychology without access to the overarching spiritual underpinnings of existence is limited, symptom oriented and ultimately less effective."

The afternoon presentation, The Roots of Healing, offered by psychotherapists and spiritual practitioners who are senior members of the International Association of Sufism (IAS), Community Healing Centers (CHC), and the Sufism and Psychology Forum (SPF) will offer workshops grounded in deep psychospiritual practice to access presence grounded in being, innate balance, and heart-based resilience. Afternoon presenters include: Jamal Granick, Ph.D., Arife Hammerle, Ph.D., and Amineh Pryor, Ph.D.
